MRS. JENDZURSKI PRESENTED PROGRAM AT U.D.C. MEETING

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met in the home of Mrs. Lucille Ferrell on Thursday, May 18th at 6:00 p.m. for a covered dish supper. There were 18 members and 7 visitors in attendance.

Mr. Otho Martin Jr. returned thanks for the food enjoyed by all.

Our special guest was Mrs Cass Jendzurski Choir Director of Memorial United Methodist Church, Appomattox, VA. She presented a program in string music and a selection of old southern songs to the group. Among some of them were, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," The Yellow Rose of Texas," "Old Blue," and "Dixie."

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Harriet Cunningham who led in the pledge and salutes to the flags. She also read the ritual. Mrs. Rachel Lawson read the Confederate Prayer.

The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and was approved and the treasurer gave a report.

On June 3rd the Massing of the Flags Ceremony will be held at 10:30 a.m. at the Jefferson Davis Memorial Monument, Richmond, VA.

An invitation has been extended to our chapter to attend the Memorial Day Service May 29 at 11:00 a.m. at the Old Methodist Cemetery, Lynchburg. Sponsored by the Southern Methodist Association, by the Kirkwood Otey and Old Dominion Chapter of U.D.C. Announcement was made that a covered dish supper will be held at the home of Mrs. Helen Gunter for the June meeting on June 15th at 6:00 p.m.

Galilee Honors Pastor 32nd Anniversary

The Galilee Baptist Church has planned the following program in observing the 32nd anniversary of its pastor the Rev. R. Q. Lawing. The service began Wednesday, May 24 with the Rev. C. L. Elliott and his Canaan, Mount Zion and Jordan Churches. Special music was rendered by the Jordan Church Choir. On Friday, May 26, the Rev. Raymond Turner and his St. Mark Church and Senior Choir will be the special guest. On Sunday, May 28 at 3 p.m. The Rev. H. W. Pryor and his Scott Zion Church and Senior Choir will be the special guest. The special anniversary committee, Mrs. Dorothy Stevens and Mr. George Martis is asking members and friends to support the service. The service will begin each evening at 7:30.

An overflow crowd attended a musical song feast sponsored by the Gospel Harmonetts of the Jordan Baptist Church for the benefit of the building fund Sunday p.m. at 7:30. The following ministers presented three of their favorite solos: Rev. J. W. Paige, Rev. H. E. Spears, Rev. C. L. Elliott, and Rev. James Miller; The program was divided into two parts. Part one included the following solos: "The Lord Will Make A Way," "Do You Love The Lord As I Do," by Rev. Paige; "When The Lord Calls Me," and "The Old Time Religion" by Rev. Spears; "You Got To Move and I Can Travel Now" by Rev. Elliott; On a mission for the King and it's alright, by Rev. James Miller. The offering was lifted by the following deacons: Charles Booker, Elwood Christian, Calvin Elliott and Edward Hudson. During the offering special music was rendered by the Harmonetts. Remarks were given by the following ministers: Reverends Harrison Kelso, J. D. Scruggs and R. Q. Lawing. Part 11 included the following selections: Peace in the Valley by Rev. Paige; There Will be a Happy Time by Rev. Spears; Somebody Touched Me by Rev. Elliott and Lord I Will Go by Rev. Miller. All who came out enjoyed the entire program.

A special rally will be held at the Promise Land Baptist Church this Sunday morning at the 11 a.m. service. Each member of the church is asked to make a special donation for the benefit of church building program.

Impressive service was held at the Galilee Baptist Church at the morning and the 3 p.m. special service. The pastor delivered very helpful sermon and beautiful music was rendered by the church choirs. Several visitors attended the service. The 3 p.m. service was given by the local men's club of the church. The Rev. J. D. Scruggs and his Rising Sun Baptist Church of Amherst, Virginia were the special guest: The following program was presented: A call to worship by the president of the club, Mr. Robert Watson who served as master of ceremony; Opening hymn, guest choir; Scripture, deacon L. A. Lawing; Prayer, deacon J. A. Watson; Music, guest choir; Welcome address, Mr. George A Martin; Response, deacon Harris of Rising Sun; Duette Messers James N. Stevens and Tim Lawing; Greetings from the following local clubs: Second Mineral Spring, Mount Pleasant, Mount Shiloh, Zion Baptist and Jordan; Musical selection, guest choir; Introduction of speaker, Rev. R. Q. Lawing; Sermond, Rev. J. D. Scruggs; Offering Brother George Stevens, deacon Hobet Watson and Deacon Frank Johnson; Remarks by the pastor; Closing selection by the guest choir; Benediction by Rev. J. D. Scruggs.

A large crowd of relatives and friends attended the commital service of the late Brother Edward I. Roberston last Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church Cemetery. Funeral service was held at the First Baptist Church, Bute Street, Norfolk, Virginia last Saturday at 2 p.m. with the pastor Rev. Lavert H. Taylor officating and delivering the eulogy. His death brought to a close a long and blessed life that was dedicated to do good to all mankind. He was born in Spout Spring, Virginia, March 19, 1887. Mount Shiloh was his home church. In 1928 he joined the First Baptist Church in Norfolk under the pastorate of the late Rev. Richard Bowling, Jr. and was a christian who believed in God and the Bible, and read some portion of the Bible every day. he was a rally leader for the church in years gone by and also served on the usher board until God called him home. He was employed by the N&W RR for over years. He is survived by one brother, Ruben Roberston, Norfolk; one sister, Mrs. Annie Sample of New York; one cousin, Mr. John Cheatman, two nieces, Mrs. Cleo Ricci of New York and Mrs. Margaret Parker of Norfolk; two nephews, Mr. Alexander Wright of New York and Mr. Vernon Roberston of New York and a host of other relatives and friends. Riddick's Funeral Home of Norfolk, Va. was in charge and assisted by the Carl B. Hutcherson Funeral Home of Lynchburg, Virginia.

A large crowd of members and friends attended the Zion Baptist Church last Sunday morning with the pastor, Rev. L. E. Hankins in charge. The Junior Choir with Miss Debby Hankins at the piano rendered music. The male chorus also sang. Rev. Hankins spoke on the subject: "Being in your own way." All present enjoyed the message. A special love offering was lifted for the Courtney family who's home was destroyed by fire. The Senior Usher Board will meet this Sunday at 11 a.m. Members and friends are reminded of the anniversary program of our pastor, Rev. Hankins on the first Sunday in June at 3 p.m. The Rev. H. J. Hendricks and his pastor, Rev. Hankins on the first Sunday in June at 3 p.m. The Rev. H. J. Hendricks and his White Oak Grove Church and choir will be the special guest. The following are on the sick list: Mrs. Alma Roberston, Mrs. Ida Patterson, Mrs. Lizzie Mack and Mr. Elijah Wheeler. The pastor offered a special prayer for all the sick of our church and every where.

Mrs. Daisy Palmer is receiving special treatment in the Lynchburg General Hospital.

YOU — GOOD AT SEEING THE FUTURE?

The way you look at the future can often tell something about what it holds for you. Why not take this quiz and see if you're up for success?

1. The training you receive after boot camp (a) doesn't give you much choice (b) trains you for a full 20- to 30-year career (c) is not very thorough?

2. The options open to you during the first five or six years of your life in the Marine Corps are (a) very few (b) none at all (c) extremely varied?

3. If you need help in deciding on what you should do after your initial tour of duty, you should (a) call your mother (b) make your own decision (c) ask an authority?

MRS. DOROTHY OLIVER
PROVIDENCE CHURCH'S MOTHER OF THE YEAR

During a Mother's Day Banquet at Providence Baptist Church on May 7, Mrs. Dorothy Oliver was chosen as 1978 Mother of the Year. Mrs. Oliver is married to Leonard W. Oliver of Red House, and they have one daughter, Susan, who resides in Richmond.

The banquet was sponsored by the youth of Providence Church. Following the meal and the selection of Mrs. Oliver as Mother of the Year, the group was entertained with several musical selections by the Girls Trio from Midway Baptist Church.

Our congratulations to Mrs. Oliver upon receiving this honor from our church!
